YAAY DESIGN INTERN

YAAY's intern is the uprising star having the curiosity for information design and the passion for technology. Dealing with challenges and organising yourself is something you feel comfortable with? You can switch between tasks, research and still feel good when the challenge is bigger than you? Well then you know that failures are there to learn from, to immerse yourself in a topic and come back with new solutions.

WE ARE CURRENTLY LOOKING FOR A CURIOUS INTERN WHO

- is fluent in German (written and spoken)
- is finishing or has finished bachelor studies
- is ready to work in Basel for 6 months
- has passion for logical and critical thinking
- is good at information design and data visualization

WHO IS YAAY

We are an information design agency based in Basel. YAAY's aim is to simplify, consolidate and restructure complex information with a creative, thoughtful and attractive design approach. We provide comprehensive, long-lasting and information-oriented communication solutions. We continuously explore and develop new forms of design by analyzing, structuring and contextualizing data. Through an aesthetically well-wrought design it is possible to create experiences that visualize complex information and make it tangible and holistic – either analog or digital.

HOW TO APPLY

Please send your application to yaay@yaay.ch and attach your online portfolio of past projects in German or English. If you have a complete CV in XING or LinkedIn you don't need to make an effort to create a PDF CV. Please also send us your medium.com/github username or other application relevant links until 17.03.17.

If you don't have any of this? All of us have started once from scratch. Feel free to try it.
